DE-GREENING THANK YOU

We are fortunate at Ascension to have so many parishioners willing to lend a hand or two when asked. Once again, many hands made de-greening of the church quick and easy. There was plenty of time to grab some delicious goodies in the Parlor, then get busy boxing up the garlands, wreaths and other ornamental greens, as well as the Nativity scene. A very grateful thank you to all who helped make this an enjoyable task.

Cradles to Crayons Drop-Off Bin: Located in Lower Boone Hall

Ascension has long been a supporter of Cradles to Crayons, the Boston non-profit that provides children with essential items that they need to thrive at home, school and play. Over the years, our generous parishioners have donated hundreds of pajamas through our Pajama Sunday celebration.

Did you know that we also have a Cradles to Crayons drop-off bin on site? Located in lower Boone Hall, now we can accept donations of new and like-new children's clothing, coats and shoes year round.

- Clothing – sizes Newborn to Adult, medium
- Shoes, Boots, Sneakers - sizes Infant to Youth (13), and Adult (10)
Please attach a rubber band to matched pairs!
- NEW socks, NEW underwear, NEW pajamas

Please be sure that your gently-used donations are high-quality: no rips, stains, broken, or missing pieces.

Look for the big purple bin!

The next book the AMC Book Group will tackle is the following:

Swimming with Elephants

by Sarah Bamford Seidelmann

My unexpected pilgrimage from physician to healer which includes travels in Africa and India.

To prepare for the discussion, kindly read Part One, to page 66.
